2-Day Celebration Welcomes Alumni; Assembly, Dance Scheduled Tomorrow

Present day Dons and old grads of Santa Ana College talk over the old and the new during the 1952 two-day Homecoming today and Friday. The two days' activities will feature the Dons-Chaffey game tonight, the special assembly tomorrow morning, and will end with the Homecoming dance tomorrow night.

Finish Nears In Homecoming Queen Race

Final votes are being cast today for SAC's selection of 1952 Homecoming Queen. Winner will be announced at halftime at tonight's game with Chaffey. Six SAC coeds are currently entered in the contest.

Candidates in the contest are Patty Conzelman, sponsored by Las Meninas; Mary Eckford, sponsored by the choir; JoAnne Gruver, sponsored by the Vet's club; Jeannine Oakes, sponsored by the spinsters; Eleanor Pettis, sponsored by the Tavern Tattlers and Las Gitanas; and Helen Weir, sponsored by Las Hidas.

The girl elected Homecoming Queen will reign throughout the remaining Homecoming activities. The two runners-up will accompany the queen and serve as her ladies in waiting.

Final voting will be finished by noon today. Three of the homecoming chairmen, Marilyn Larzeler, John Dowden, and Bob Elsner will count the votes. Votes are to be purchased at a penny per vote. Proceeds from the voting will be used to finance the Christmas formal.

Hasson's Florists at St. Andrews and Main are donating flowers for the queen and her ladies in waiting. The Queen's crown is being loaned to SAC by Ruppert's Jewelers located east of Main on 4th street.

Tonight's football game with Chaffey will officially start the SAC Homecoming. The game is scheduled for the municipal bowl. Game time is 8:00 p. m. A special section on the Santa Ana side of the bowl is reserved for alumni and their guests.

Assembly Friday

Homecoming festivities will be highlighted by an assembly Friday in the student union. The SAC Swing Choir, under the direction of Gordon Wheatley, director of music, will entertain at the assembly.

The homecoming hop is to be held in the union from 9 to 1 Friday night. Ann Sloniger, chairman of the dance, states Gracie and the Debonaires will return to furnish music for students and grads.

Sponsored by Inter-club Council
The inter-club council will sponsor the activities of the two-day homecoming, supported by Young Farmers, Meninas, Bachelors, Hidas, Bachelors, Vets Club, and the Spinsters. John Dowden, student body vice-prexy, coordinated the efforts of the inter-club council in planning the homecoming celebration.

AS social commissioner, Marilyn Larzeler, heads the homecoming projects, while John Dowden is her co-chairman, Norma Rollins chairman of the queen contest, George Bartell chairman of publicity, Bill Shands is in charge of halftime activities and Bob Elsner is general chairman of the dance. Miss Agness Todd Miller is faculty advisor.

Vocational Dinner Planned By A.M.S. Frank DeVol To Lead Don-Saint Band At Sixth Annual Saint Show

At a recent meeting of the A.M.S. executive board, plans were tentatively made for a Vocational Dinner to take place sometime in early January.

Local men in the vocations and professions that are the same as those taught at SAC will be the guests of aspirants majoring in those fields.

Vet's Plan "Sadie Hawkins" Dance; Admission—Toys

The newly organized Vets Club at SAC will sponsor a Sadie Hawkins Day dance. Scheduled for sometime in November, admission to the dance will be toys instead of cash.

The dance is only part of the Vets Club program. They plan to hold a Christmas party on campus for children 3 to 8, and use the toys turned in at the dance.

Former Armed Forces members will turn their talents to painting and fixing up the second hand toys. The Christmas party will be held for underprivileged children in Orange County.

Frank De Vol, popular orchestra director and radio TV personality, will direct the Don-Saint orchestra in the sixth annual SAINT SHOW broadcast from the high school auditorium it was announced this week.

Instructor Douglas Lamont recently completed arrangements with De Vol to preside at the podium for this popular musical event, and De Vol will rehearse with the 70-piece orchestra early next week in preparation for the program.

Confer with DeVol

Lamont and a group of students which included Diane Cave and Richard Wolfe from SAC conferred with DeVol at the Guild Theatre in Hollywood last Tuesday regarding many of the details involved in the preparation of the show. "He seems to be a wonderful person," said Diane Cave, "and very approachable." Wolfe was equally impressed, but quipped, "I didn't realize he was a violinist, I guess I'll have to take my Strad out to the woodshed—and burn it!"

Appearance Planned

The broadcast Thursday will be one of a series of appearances by the orchestra through the week of Nov. 17-21 which will culminate in the big concert on the Friday evening.

SAC Registrar Attends Meet At San Jose

Miss Genevieve Humiston, SAC registrar recently returned from the Pacific Coast Association Collegiate Registrars meeting which was held at San Jose College November 9 through 12.

At the meeting she served as chairman of the Junior College session. Problems which are common to junior colleges were the main discussion.

Those attending the affair were representatives of the seven Western states.

Mysterious Students Take SAC Victory Flag In Daring Daylight Raid; "We Did It" Admits FJC Prexy

In a daring mid-day robbery, several Fullerton Junior College students casually pilfered the Santa Ana College Victory Banner from the flag pole, between 1 and 2 o'clock on the afternoon of November 3.

The banner will be returned to the Dons at halftime during the annual Thanksgiving Day game between Santa Ana and Fullerton.

Mark Hepp, Fullerton student body president, 'confessed' taking part in the affair when confronted by Bob Elsner, who inquired about the bunting. Hepp was quick to add, "We've been planning to steal the flag since the first day of school."

Mr. Hepp, who himself hoisted the banner down the pole, didn't think that the attempt to take the flag would succeed, when he noted that a Don student stood by and watched the whole incident.

Bob Elsner urges all SAC students to be on the alert for similar attempts to 'borrow' articles from the campus. He adds, "If you see suspicion-looking characters on the campus, either stop them or find out what they're doing."

THE COLLEGE AND HER ALUMNI

Any college is no better than its alumni. Upon the caliber of its graduates and the measure of success they have achieved, the name of the schools themselves depend.

Santa Ana College can be and is proud of her alumni. Many have gone on to carve for themselves careers in business, the arts, science. Since the founding of Santa Ana College, many alumni have shed blood and died in three wars.

We, the present students of Santa Ana College, hope that we can uphold the fine traditions and reputation already made by the college. We welcome the returning grads and wish them the utmost success in the future.

GUEST EDITORIAL

Don't you know there's a war on?

That was a pat answer to anyone who complained during World War II, but I think it is even more applicable now.

During the second world war, Americans were keyed to a much higher pitch, and the war directly affected a much larger proportion of the population than is the case in this "Forgotten war." Now, news about Korea has to compete with national and local news for the headlines. During a major sporting event such as the world series, you really have to search to find the war news.

I realize that it is impossible, and probably not even desirable, to keep at a white hot heat of indignation over the war, but I also believe that we should make every effort to keep from becoming blasé over the ever mounting toll of casualties.

Just the other day, I noticed a plaque in the school dining room in memory of those former students who gave their lives for their country in World War II. I believe that those who die in Korea should also be remembered in a similar way. I don't know what the procedure was in dedicating that plaque, but I believe that, in the future, a short assembly should be held whenever it became necessary to make any additions to the roll of honor. Surely this would be a more forceful reminder of the costs of war than to have some all-inclusive dedication several years after the war is over.

The main objective, though, should be to keep the people aware of the fact that Americans are fighting and dying for us on a remote peninsula in Asia, and to let our boys know that we haven't forgotten them.

Independence, Modernization Of Europe Shown In Correspondence

By RONALD BELTZ

Many, in fact, most people would still imagine Europeans to be living amidst rubble, hopelessly impoverished by the recent World War, and miserably dependent on the United States to decide their nation's fate as well as their own.

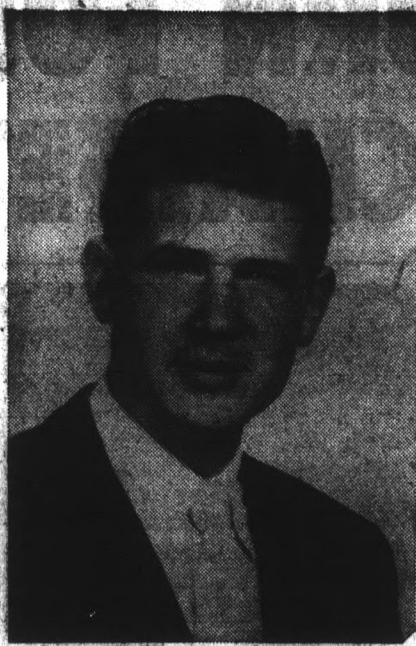

Spain, through the letters of an engineering student in Barcelona, appears to be a pleasant, rapidly modernizing land, with a strongly sympathetic feeling for Argentine's Peron and his government, and a high regard for her own Franco. Even so, an amicable attitude is displayed towards the United States. The Korean War is considered a tool of Russia's device—a conflict predicted long in advance of its actuality by the Spanish press. A UN victory is eventually anticipated.

French Social Life

Moving further north to Nice in the French Riviera, a young French woman tells of a social life quite comparable to our own. She relates of family trips taken during the summer months, when she is free of her educational activities, of swimming and sunning on the Riviera's justly famous beaches, and of dating en bande, or in groups. Politics are never a subject of discussion in our letters.

Insight to Thoughts

Going still further north, this time to a small town in the French Zone of Germany, one finds Isny im Allgau, from whence I receive some of my most detailed insights into European thought. Here my friend is a student at the University of Munich, a fellow who is greatly addicted to traveling on a bicycle whenever and wherever he is able. Two recent trips to Switzerland were charmingly and quaintly described in not too correct but amply expressive accounts in French and English, rendered even more intriguing by the unexpected inclusion of some German now and then. The spirit of a poet, a music-lover, philosopher, philanthropist, and artist all combine to make this young man an earnest warrior for the cause of Democracy. He knows and can appreciate the individual, and he rightly realizes that this would all be smothered by the impenetrable smudge of communism.

BOB MERKER

Campus Spotlight

Yell King Merker Goes All Out For Don Campus

For Bob Merker, head yell leader at Santa Ana College, any SAC football game is sixty full minutes and more of muscular activity, with no substitutions Bob throws all of his 5'10", 170 pound frame into bringing out the best in the cheering stands.

But not only is Bob SAC's head cheerleader. He is a choir club member, active in the Caballeros, treasurer of the Ski Club, a member of the Knights, and president of the sophomore class.

Chosen as this week's campus personality, he will receive a free 11" by 14" portrait from Oliver and Loving Studios in the Arcade building on South Main.

One of the most congenial men on campus, Bob considers his '37 Ford, his coin collection and Mary Lou Eckford the joys in his life.

Next to collecting coins, dancing rates high as a pastime with Bob. Les Brown is his favorite.

Watch Bob at the next game. You'll see where he develops all the energy he devotes to his campus activities.

Don, FJC Paper Staffs Inaugurate Football Titanic

Sports pages around the country are pregnant with speculation as it was announced today that the Santa Ana College "El Don" staff and the staff of the Fullerton JC "Torch" will inaugurate the first annual "Ink Bowl" football game.

Dons Undeclared, Untied

The Don scribes, undeclared, untied, and unranked in local football circles will vie with Hornetville invaders here Wednesday, November 19 in a six man touch battle that promises to be unparalleled in jaycee grid annals. A suitable trophy will go to the winner.

Employing a split P attack, the El Don squad will use Spastic Bob Elsner as quarter, Slopalong Bill Shands at full, and Babbling Bob Hicks at half. In the line will be Bud Ottaway, the Laguna Loper, and Epilptic Ed Luzania at ends, and Jittery John Dowden at center. Bill Wells, the Tustin Terror, and Popular Pete Matthews will alternate in the line. Coach is Carmela Clark.

Do or Die Battle

Alumni pressure, student threats and underworld bribery have all combined to make the contest a do or die battle. Torch editor Ron Jensen has committed himself and his staff to an afternoon of sixty minute football, and stated that FJC honor will not be besmirched.

Spanish Instructor Mary Swass Original Member of College Faculty

One member of the college faculty can well speak with authority on the progress of Santa Ana College, as Spanish instructor Mary Swass has been associated with the college since its founding in 1915.

Former Students Go To Congress, Play Pro Ball

Alumni of Santa Ana College are keeping their names in the news wherever they are journeying.

The national elections brought to light the name of James B. Utt. He was elected representative to Congress for the 28th District of California. He first attended SAC in 1919-20 and returned to graduate in 1944.

Blanchard Beatty, '31, is coaching sports at Garden Grove Union High School.

Frank Errota, SAC journalism graduate of '49, has been employed as a sports writer for the San Jose News since July of this year. He received his B.A. in journalism from San Jose State this summer.

Keever Jankovich, '50, is playing line-backer for the professional football team, Dallas Texans. Jankovich is remembered for his co-captaining of the Little Rose Bowl team in 1949.

Lloyd Manderschied '30, a member of the State Championship football team of 1930 is residing in Garden Grove with his wife Winnie, '33. Lloyd has a do-nut shop in Orange.

Jane Lindemuth, co-editor of the El Don in '51, is working for the Press-Telegram as feature writer.

Dr. Mildred Wehrly, '39, is now practicing in Santa Ana.

Dick Wilcox, student-body president last year is attending Santa Barbara State. He is majoring in drama and hopes to become a drama teacher when he completes his schooling.

Dean Gautschi, editor of the El Don in 1951, will receive his B.A. in journalism from Pacific University, Forest Grove, Oregon, next year. He is managing editor of the school paper and is employed as sports editor of the News-Times, the local paper.

Harold Mutz '39 is presently teaching in the elementary school in Garden Grove.

Miss Swass, who is now in her thirty-fifth year of teaching at SAC, came out of retirement this year to take over the Spanish and III classes. At one time she also taught mathematics.

Seen College's Growth

Miss Swass has seen the enrollment grow from nine students in 1915 to over 1200 during the post war boom. She also has witnessed the building of the present college plant, which is a far cry from the buildings located on the high school campus during the college's early years.

The well known instructor wholeheartedly endorses the homecoming activities and states that she feels that "it will be very nice, as the college and faculty get re-acquainted with the old students again and learn what they are doing."

Varied Schooling

A graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, she has also studied at the University of Mexico in Mexico City and the Centro de Estudios Historicos in Madrid, Spain. Miss Swass has traveled to Europe and Spain twice.

First Meeting Of E.C. Presidents Held; Plan All-Conference Dance

In the first meeting of the Eastern Conference Student Body Presidents' Association, held at Chaffey College on November 3, the main order of business was the adoption of the following agreement:

To further intra-conference harmony by holding monthly meetings.

The student body president of the host school shall preside.

The duties of the secretary shall be rotated alphabetically beginning with the Fullerton Student Body President.

Host colleges will be determined alphabetically.

The first meeting of each school year will be held in October at Chaffey College.

The meeting dates will be determined at the next previous meeting with the exception of the October meeting which will be determined by the Chaffey Student Body President.

The student body adviser of the host school shall be invited to attend.

Other items of business were: Eastern Conference policy concerning out-of-state athletes problem at the Hollywood conference, exchange of school newspapers between student body presidents, the Eastern Conference dance, and the Spring semester Eastern Conference Student Government meeting to be hosted by Chaffey College.

The meeting, which convened following dinner at an Ontario restaurant, was termed "very successful" by Santa Ana student body prexy, Bob Elsner.

It was decided to hold the next meeting on December 1, at Fullerton Junior College.

Newman Club Names Erdkamp President

Mary Erdkamp will preside as president of the Newman Club for the school year. Assisting her will be Humberto Valdirua, vice-president; Irene Murphy, secretary, and Richard Hitt, treasurer.

The meetings of the club are held the first and third Thursday of each month at member's homes. The next meeting will be at Miss Marie Pound's home, 2102 Poinsettia, Santa Ana, who is the faculty advisor. All Catholics who are interested in becoming a member of the Newman Club are asked to attend this meeting.

Members of the Newman Club will attend a Communion breakfast during the month of November after attending church at St. Joseph's Church in Santa Ana.

Bob Retchwig Chosen To Captain Bucs

At a meeting held recently in the Student Union Bob Retchwig was elected skipper of the Bucaneros for the ensuing term.

Harvey Bryan was chosen first mate with ex-skipper Don Stroud selected for the dual role of keeper of the log and keeper of the booty. The position of slave master went to Wayne Schnakenburg.

Bartell Elected Ski Club Prexy; Five Day Yosemite Trip Planned

A five day trip to Squaw Valley in Yosemite is planned by the SAC Ski Club for the near future. The trip was discussed and new members were accepted.

Election of officers were held with George Bartell elected president, Jim Bell, vice president; Marilyn Larzelere, secretary and Bob Merker, treasurer.

Twenty six students were present at the meeting. They were Stuart Armstrong, Stan Bond, Valerie McKeown, Pat McHaffy, Mary Lou Eilgold, Lynn Brown, Don Tibbetts, Bob Merker, Bob Haddock, Bob Baken, and Don Stroud.

"Gayden," Psychological Drama Will Be First All-College Production

Santa Ana College's drama department will open their college play season December 8 in Studio A with the production of "Gayden," by Mignon and Robert McLaughlin.

Starring in the title role will be Carl Gustafson, with Martha Havermale playing the mother Emily, and Joanne Gruver as Emily. Maryt Kmiec is cast as Dr. Whitaker, uncle of Gayden, Carol Stanton plays Agnes, and Polly, an ex-affair of Gayden's, will be portrayed by Eleanor Pettis.

The play, a melodrama heavy with psychological overtones, concerns the story of a handsome and personable youth who is extremely attractive to women. Emily, a house guest of his mothers, falls in love with Gayden, who is leading her on by taking a great interest in her looks, dress and manners. In a dramatic final scene, Gayden brutally disillusiones Emily and shows his potential psychopathic condition.

The play will run five nights, December 8 through 12, and will be free to AS ticket holders. Drama instructor C. L. Ford will direct the production and will be assisted by members of the drama and stagecraft classes in the mechanics of the play.

THAT'S FAR ENOUGH—Santa Ana linebacker Bob Griffith applies stopper to San Bernardino runner early in first quarter. Dons broke the game wide open in fourth period to win 34-12.

INEPT DON ELEVEN BLANKED BY ORANGE COAST, 14 TO 0

Santa Ana fell to fifth place in the Eastern Conference standings Friday, dropping a 14-0 decision to steamed-up Orange Coast before 6000 Municipal Bowl fans.

Neither team showed much offensively and the game soon turned into a defensive wrangle. Orange Coast throttled the Don offense so completely that SAC managed only one first down until well into the third period.

Alert Line Play

The Pirates controlled the ball throughout the first half and registered eight first downs. Alert line play by end Dave Sitton, who broke through to toss qb Lenny Kolb for several long losses, and timely interceptions by Al Chan halted Orange Coast scoring thrusts.

Statistics tell the story. Coast nearly doubled the Dons' efforts in total yardage, amassing 333 yards to SAC's 174. First downs favored the Pirates, 18 to 7.

After a dull first half which saw both squads leave the field without an advantage, the determined Bucs wasted little time putting seven points on the score in four plays, Mel Smalley slicing inside left guard from the 20 and scoring standing up. Braga added board. The Pirates moved 65 yards the extra point.

Chan Intercepts

In the closing minutes of the third quarter Al Chan picked off a stray Coast aerial on the SAC 35 and set sail for the north goal, finally being hauled down on the 24 after fumbling it at mid-field. The threat didn't materialize, however, and the Dons lost the ball on downs on the 17 yard line.

Orange Coast put the contest out of reach with the fourth quarter two-thirds gone. End Chuck Hansen started things off by recovering Joe Voso's bobble on the Don 23. With first and ten to go on the 13-yard stripe, Charley Black swung around his own left end and was finally knocked out of bounds on the one. He cracked over on the next play and Braga converted.

SAN BERNARDINO TROUNCED BY SANTA ANA ELEVEN, 34 TO 12

Santa Ana's Dons played a cruel Halloween prank on San Bernardino's previously unwhipped Indians November 1, tricking the Inlanders into thinking they might win and then treating them to a 34-12 pasting.

The air was filled with more than spooks and goblins as quarterback Bob Smith completed 14 out of 23 passes while guiding the locals to their second major upset of the '52 campaign. Incidentally, both times Santa Ana has stuck to the double-spread formation—Pasadena and San Bernardino—the team has surprised squads rated two to three touchdowns superior.

13-0 Don Lead

After a scoreless first period, the Dons stunned Valley College by striking for two quick td's and a 13-0 lead. Smith sped over for the initial tally; his passing and running had place the ball on the five yard stripe. Moments later, Jack Wilcox picked off a Don Meyer aerial and returned it nine yards to the Berdoo 27. On the second down Smith tossed 23 yards to Harvey Bryan in the end zone.

Perry Jeter climaxed a Warrior march in the second stanza, squirming across from three yards out. King didn't have time to get his conversion attempt off.

Almost Stopped

The Braves looked as if they might pull the game out of the fire midway through the third quarter. Apparently halted by a host of scarlet and black tacklers, Lenny Smith shook loose for six on a 50-yard romp up the middle to cut the SAC margin to 13-12. Dave Sitton blocked King's try for the extra point.

Smith pitched 10 yards to Bob Holder on the goal line shortly after the final period opened for the play that proved the turning point. Wilcox, on a spectacular 76-yard punt return, and Bob Griffith completed the scoring parade by adding insuring touchdowns. Wilcox booted four conversions in a row after having his first blocked.

Cage Prospects Start Practice

Calling the squad out for its first official practice on November 3, basketball coach Earl Engman was greeted by seventeen turnouts. Among the hopefuls were letermen John Rock, Tim Peralta, Jerry Schoonover, Dick Cruze, and Phil Bennett.

Although the schedule is not yet completed, home and home games with Pasadena, Glendale, and Ventura have already been arranged. The team's initial outing will be on December 5 when they meet a strong quintet from Ventura in the Chaffey Invitational Tournament.

Until league play gets underway the Dons will participate in city league contests where they will be known as the Rockets. Last Monday a practice skirmish was held with a team from the El Toro marine base.

The rest of the squad includes Toro Imamura, Docky Soula, Bob Youel, Hersh Sowadski, Carmelo Renne, Alvin Douglas, Ernie Luzania, Gary Whelton, Ray Quigley, Ron Burkhart, Frank Wilt, and Bob Wiseman. Soula, Sowadski, and Wilt, however, are ineligible this season due to a conference ruling covering out of state athletes. All three hail from Chicago.

Practice is held daily at the high school gym from 5 to 7 p. m. All those interested in basketball are urged to sign up.

CHAFFEY BATTLES SANTA ANA IN HOMECOMING TUSSLE TONITE

Two teams tied for fifth place in the Eastern Conference standings, Santa Ana and Chaffey JC, clash head-on under the arcs in the Municipal Bowl tonight. The game will be under way at 8 p. m.

If the Dons have a soft touch on their schedule this is it. The Panthers have been scored upon almost at will by everyone except Cal Poly (San Dimas) and Riverside. The inlanders mauled Poly 48 to 7 and upset the Tigers by a score of 20 to 7.

Chaffey Held Scoreless

While Santa Ana has been shut out twice, 0-0 with Long Beach CC and a 14-0 reversal to Orange Coast, being blanked is nothing unusual to Chaffey. East Los Angeles, Pasadena, Fullerton, and Orange Coast held the Panthers pointless and won by respective margins of 28-0, 61-0, 44-0, and 21-0. Playing against Boise of Idaho the Panthers got their tails twisted to the tune of 71 to 13.

Santa Ana isn't exactly the hottest team in the Southland, however. After rolling past Mexico Poly, Pasadena, and Inyo-Kern Navy the Dons have managed but one win and a tie in four outings.

Trimmed Riverside

Off comparative scores Santa Ana rates as a shoo-in, yet Chaffey beat a good Riverside team that whipped highly-touted Fullerton.

To make any kind of a showing at all in E.C. competition, the Dons need to take this one. Even if the locals swept their three remaining conference games, it would give them only a 4-2 mark, probably not good enough to tie, let alone win. San Bernardino is now the odds-on choice, but the Indians still have Mt. San Antonio to cope with.

Last season the Dons handed Chaffey a 35 to 18 thumping.

ENGMAN SELECTED NEW CAGE COACH

Taking over as mentor of Santa Ana's basketball squad is Earl Engman, newly appointed coach.

Engman replaces John Wilcox who asked to be relieved of basketball when he found his duties as football line coach and basketball coach were overlapping.

A graduate of Bell High School and Santa Barbara College, Engman is presently teaching at Frances Willard Junior High School. Before arriving at Santa Ana, he was in the physical education department at Maricopa High School.

During his three years of college, Engman lettered in football, basketball, and track. In 1948 he missed the U. S. Olympic team in the hop, step and jump, by one inch. He was also with the professional San Francisco 49ers as a defensive fullback until he injured a knee.

Wilcox Picked Don of the Week

Compiling the largest number of votes to date, halfback Jack Wilcox was chosen Don of the Week for the San Bernardino edition of the weekly poll conducted by Vandermaast Clothing Store.

Jack won the award by throwing the crowd with a dazzling yard punt return in the fourth quarter.

Wilcox lettered in both football and track during his freshman year.
